SUMMER SESSION OF 1965

History  The Middlebury College Language Schools were the pioneers in the development of segregated, specialized summer schools for the study of modern languages in this country. The German School was founded in 1915, followed by the French and Spanish Schools in 1916 and 1917 respectively. The German School was reopened in 1931; the Italian School was added in 1932, and the Russian School in 1945. These schools have made a distinctive contribution to educational progress in America, and won for Middlebury an international reputation.

The Middlebury Idea  Thorough training in the use of the foreign language is the foundation of Middlebury's reputation. These five schools aim to give a mastery of the spoken and written language, and a coordinated knowledge of the life, institutions, literature, history, and culture of the foreign country. The basic Middlebury rule is strictly enforced—the segregation of students from contact with English; complete concentration upon the foreign language; exclusive use of the language in and out of the classroom; and careful attention to the individual needs of each student. Each school has its separate residences and dining halls and a faculty of native instructors. During the entire session, the foreign language is the sole medium of communication in work and play. From the day of arrival, students are pledged to speak the foreign language.

Objectives  The schools have long been devoted to the intensive preparation of teachers of languages. At present, the serious shortage of well-trained language teachers makes this function even more significant. The schools have also provided trained linguists for our armed services, for many specialized government agencies, and for scientific research. Language training is essential for those who participate in international organizations, whether political, military, or cultural. It is now recognized that a greatly increased study of foreign languages by the American public is in the national interest. Middlebury offers ideal conditions for such study. The fundamental ideal of the Language Schools of Middlebury College is to help achieve a durable peace and real international cooperation, based on an understanding of our cultural heritage and the thought processes of our neighbors in a small world.
Location  The Middlebury Language Schools are located in a lovely Vermont countryside, at the foot of the Green Mountains, fifteen miles from Lake Champlain. They occupy the campus of Middlebury College, founded in 1800 and still one of the most charming of New England colleges. The summer climate is delightful, with clear dry breezes and cool nights.

No college in the East offers more attractive opportunities for out-of-door recreation. The program of studies leaves late afternoons and week ends free. Groups of students frequently spend an afternoon at a lakeside or hiking in the mountains. Swimming may be enjoyed at Lake Dunmore and in the college indoor pool. Tennis and golf are available. Lake Champlain, Mount Mansfield, Ticonderoga, the Adirondacks, Lake Placid, or the White Mountains: any of these can be visited in a day’s trip.

Atmosphere  The schools endeavor to make everything in the life of a student during his stay contribute as effectively and as pleasantly as possible to the mastery of the foreign language. Similarity of aim among students fosters good comradeship and an esprit de corps; while constant association with instructors at the dining tables, in songs and games, on hikes and picnics, no less than in the classroom, brings both inspirational and intellectual stimulus. Regular programs of musical concerts, informal sings, foreign films, dramatic presentations, outings and sports are organized. A high ratio of instructors to students is maintained, approximately one to eight.

Admission  All the schools are graduate schools. The courses require advanced preparation and real linguistic ability. A few undergraduate majors may be accepted if they are strongly recommended by their professors as having adequate preparation. Students may enter without examinations and without being candidates for degrees. All students are carefully screened and placed in the classes best suited to their advancement.

The Pledge  No student will be admitted to a school unless he is able and willing to use only the language of the school, during the entire session, wherever he may be. This rule, which is a cherished and unique tradition of the schools, and a fundamental of the Middlebury method, is consistently enforced from the moment the student enrolls. It holds good for the individual dormitory rooms, all extra-curricular activities, and excursions. It is all-inclusive. Students may use English in their dealings with the people of the village, but even in these cases, students must not speak English to each other. At the opening of the schools, each student will be required to sign a formal statement, pledging his word of honor to observe this rule.
The right is reserved to dismiss students who willfully break it. Only the director or the dean may grant temporary release, upon occasions which may warrant it. If, even after the opening of school, a student is found to be unable to comply with the rules of the school, the administration reserves the right to request him to withdraw and to refund the fees paid.

Academic Status  The quality of instruction offered at the Middlebury Schools is well known. As compared with foreign travel or study, a summer session here is more economical, provides courses better suited to the needs of American teachers, and gives an intensive training not found in foreign institutions. Such study furnishes the indispensable preparation for profitable study in the foreign land. The summer of 1964 brought students from forty-eight different states and eleven foreign countries. Three hundred ninety-one colleges and universities were represented. Ninety-three and one-half per cent of the students held degrees, and eighteen per cent held the Master's degree or the Doctorate. The majority of the students are candidates for advanced degrees. Two hundred and fifty-two Master's degrees and one Doctorate in Modern Languages were awarded in August, 1964.

Equipment  The Language Laboratory and Phonetics Center is shared by all the schools. All students may use it without charge. It is completely equipped with the most modern tape-recorders and play-backs, disc-cutting recorders, electric pick-ups, and large collections of recordings on tape and discs. It has twenty-seven individual practice studios, with trained assistants in charge. All students, especially those interested in organizing a Language Laboratory, are invited to avail themselves of the Consultation Service offered, by individual appointment, with Prof. Watkins, Director of the Language Laboratory, at his office in Room D.

The splendid new Sunderland Language Center and Dana Auditorium will be ready for use in September 1965.

The College Library, with its new wings, has extensive collections of books and magazines in all five foreign languages. All students have stack privileges. Each school has its own Bookshop, bringing attractive offerings of books direct from the foreign country. Each school also presents its own collection of realia, illustrative material, and teaching aids.

The Wright Memorial Theatre, near Le Château, with its fine auditorium, dramatics equipment, and classrooms, is shared by all the schools.

Credits  Each course meeting daily carries two semester hours of credit. Students who wish credits, transcripts, or recommendations must take the final examinations at the close of the session. Not more than six credits may be gained in one summer by an undergraduate, and not more than eight credits by a graduate student. A graduate student must receive a grade of 80 in a course in order to obtain credit for that course. The undergraduate passing grade is 70 subject to the regulations of the student’s own college.

The Master’s Degree  Candidates must hold a baccalaureate degree from an approved college. To obtain the degree of Master of Arts, an approved program of thirty credits is necessary, usually requiring four summers. Twenty of the thirty credits must be earned at Middlebury, but students transferring six or more credits from other institutions may complete the Master’s degree in three summers. See the inside back cover for information about the Graduate Schools of French, German, Italian, and Spanish abroad.

Students desiring to transfer graduate credits earned at other institutions should send the transcripts to the dean of their school before the opening of the session. Graduate credits transferred from other institutions toward a Middlebury degree expire and may no longer be so counted after ten years have elapsed since the study was done. As far as possible, prior approval should be secured for courses intended for transfer. Effective with students who begin graduate work after 1956, graduate credits earned at Middlebury College toward a Master’s degree expire and may no longer be so counted after ten years have elapsed since the study was done. Study in a foreign country in courses approved by the dean may be counted. Six credits may be allowed for an equivalent of ninety hours of class exercises followed by examinations. Six credits is the maximum allowed for a single summer session of foreign study. Twenty credits must be earned in the major language; ten may be earned in related subjects approved by the dean. A qualified undergraduate may be permitted to accumulate a maximum of twelve graduate credits applicable toward an eventual Master’s degree at Middlebury. Students desiring to count credits taken at Middlebury toward degrees to be secured elsewhere should obtain permission to do so from the institution to which they wish the credits transferred. Degrees are conferred in August or at the Commencement following the completion of the work. A graduation fee of $15 is required.

The Degree of Doctor of Modern Languages  Middlebury College also offers, through the Language Schools, the advanced degree of Doctor of Modern Languages (D.M.L.). The main requirements are a thorough knowledge of a major language and its literature; two minor languages; the equivalent of a year’s resident study beyond the Master’s degree; a year of study in a foreign country; and a thesis written in the major language. Full details will be sent on request.

Living Accommodations  Students live in the college dormitories, and board is provided by the college. All rooms are completely furnished by the college; blankets, sheets and towels are supplied. Arrangements for personal laundry may be made after arrival. No accommodations for married couples are available. Students are not encouraged to live in town, because in doing so they fail to receive the full benefit of the Middlebury method. Students who may have a valid reason for preferring to live in town must receive permission from the dean of their school. Since dormitory accommodations are limited, students are urged to apply as early as possible. The right is reserved to close applications in any school at any time after March first. Acceptance as a student does not guarantee dormitory accommodation.

Health Service There is an Infirmary on the campus directed by a resident graduate nurse. She holds regular office hours, and is on call at all times in case of emergency. This service is free to all enrolled students. When the nature of a student's illness requires the services of a doctor, or hospitalization, or special medication, the student assumes all the financial obligations involved, as his fees to the college do not cover them. The tuition fee does, however, include an accident insurance policy with limited coverage which will be explained on request. No special diets can be arranged.

Transportation Middlebury is halfway between Burlington and Rutland, Vermont. Students not arriving by automobile will go via the N.Y. Central to Albany, N.Y., or via the Boston and Maine to Bellows Falls, Vt.; or via the Vt. Central to Essex Junction (Burlington); and make bus connections on the Vermont Transit Lines to Middlebury. Bus timetables will be provided on request. There is no railroad passenger service direct to Middlebury. There is scheduled airplane service to Burlington from Boston via Northeast Airlines and from New York via Mohawk Airlines. Baggage should be sent by railway express.

Opening of the Session All the schools will open the session of 1965 on Friday, July 2, and will continue until August 19. The houses of residence will open to receive students on Friday, July 2, and lunch will be served at 12:30 p. m. No guests can be received earlier. Members of the faculty, and waiters or waitresses may, however, occupy their rooms on Thursday night, July 1. All houses will close after lunch, Thursday noon, August 19, and no guests can be accommodated after that time. Commencement exercises will be held on Tuesday evening, August 17.

Enrollment Procedure Immediately upon arrival, each student should report to the office of his school for enrollment and selection of courses. The offices will be open on Friday and Saturday, July 2 and 3. Students should then pay their bill at the Office of the Cashier on the first floor of Old Chapel. The Language Schools Office is on the second floor of Hillcrest Annex. The first assemblies of the schools are held on Sunday evening, July 4; all students are required to attend. Classes begin at 8:00 Monday morning, July 5.
Fees  The administration reserves the right to make any changes without notice in courses, staff, living arrangements, etc. The following information about fees should be carefully noted.

Rates  Rates in all the schools vary according to single or double occupancy of rooms. The inclusive fee for registration, tuition, board and room will be from $440 to $480. The tuition fee for students rooming in town is $265. A student’s entire bill is payable at the opening of the session. A bill will be sent in due time, and students are urgently advised to avoid inconvenience by paying it in advance by mail; otherwise bringing all money for fees in the form of money orders, express checks, or cashier’s checks. Checks should be made payable to Middlebury College.

Registration Fee  Each accepted applicant must pay a $50 registration fee when requested by the Language Schools Office. This fee will be credited to the student’s total bill and an applicant is considered officially registered only when he has paid this fee. It is required of every student. No dormitory space is assigned until this fee is received. This fee will be refunded only if notice of cancellation is received by the Secretary of the Language Schools before May first; after May 1 no refund will be made.

Insurance  The tuition fee also includes a fee for an accident insurance policy with limited coverage.

Auditors  All courses in a school are open to auditing at any time without charge by members of that school, or by members of another of the Language Schools on permission of both the respective deans. Visitors to Middlebury, not members of a school, may be permitted to enroll as auditors, on payment of the fee of $25 a week or $100 for four or more weeks, arrangements to be made in the Language Schools Office. All such auditors are not entitled to take part in class discussions, nor to receive the attention of the professor. Auditors may also attend social events and evening entertainments. To enroll as a participating member of a course, a student must pay the full tuition charge. Guests of students cannot be accommodated in the college dormitories.

Enrollment in Two Schools  A student enrolled in one school may also enroll for credit in another school, on payment of an additional fee of $25 per course, if by reason of his proficiency, he receives the consent of the deans of both schools. This privilege is subject to the limitations of staff and space, and may not be available in certain heavily elected courses. Students interested in a particular course should inquire in advance.

Late Enrollment  All students are required to enroll and pay all fees not later than the first day of instruction. Enrollment after that day will be accepted only by special permission secured in advance from the dean, and will be subject to a fine of $3.00 for the first day and $1.00 additional for each day late during the first week of classes, after which no enrollments will be accepted. Rooms reserved for students will not be held after the second day of instruction unless permission has been secured in advance from the dean.

Transcript Fees  One official transcript of a summer’s work will be issued without charge on written request to the College Registrar. A fee of $1.00 is charged for each additional transcript. No transcripts will be issued or grades given to students financially indebted to the college, until satisfactory arrangements have been made at the office of the Bursar.

Refunds  Owing to fixed obligations for instruction and maintenance, persons arriving late or leaving school before the close of the session must not expect reimbursement of any charges. No allowances will be made for week-end absences.
Veterans may attend the Language Schools under Public Laws 346 or 550. If a veteran wishes to enroll, he should apply immediately for a Certificate of Eligibility from his local Veterans Administration Agency and send it to the Secretary of the Language Schools. Veterans under P.L. 550 should come prepared to pay their fees in full.

Correspondence Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information, should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Hillcrest, Middlebury College; Middlebury, Vermont 05753. The telephone number is 388-4903 (Area Code 802). Correspondence concerning admissions to a particular school, courses, credits and self-help should be addressed to the Director or Dean of the school concerned as indicated.
This summer, the French School will celebrate its fiftieth year of existence. The School looks back with pride on the record of the past half-century, signalized by the award of the Prix de la Langue Française and the Médaille d'Or from the Académie Française. It is also looking ahead to still higher standards and an ever greater refinement of its quality.

The Visiting Professor will be M. Jean-Pierre Richard, one of the most brilliant proponents of the New French Criticism; he will lecture on the most recent developments in French novel and French poetry. Our golden jubilee will be marked by a new formula: a Visiting Lecturer will give a series of five lectures, to form the basis of an Honors course, to be implemented by directed personal research. The Visiting Lecturer will be Professor Georges May, Dean of Yale College, who will lecture on Corneille.

The Director, Professor Jean Boorsch of Yale, will initiate a new course on Linguistics and its applications. Professor Jacques Lusseyran will again present the Contemporary French Theater, and Professor Jean Paris the Contemporary French Novel, from Proust to Camus. The theatrical activities will be directed by a disciple of F. Darbon, M. Roland Monod. Professor Maurice Rambaud will develop his course on the use of the audio-visual methods in France. The most recent scientific developments in Phonetics will be presented by Professor André Malécot, seconded by several teachers coming directly from France.

COURSES OF STUDY

I. Language

11. ADVANCED FRENCH STYLISTICS. Designed to give advanced students a finer feeling for French style, a sense for shades of meaning, a mastery of certain difficulties not discussed in more elementary courses. Theoretical lessons in stylistics; advanced exercises in translation and composition. Strictly limited to fifteen students.

9:00 M. MARTIAL.

12. ADVANCED COMPOSITION. For students who, having a good knowledge of French, have not yet mastered certain peculiarities of syntax and phrasing. Texts of increasing difficulty translated into French; a few compositions; class discussions. Sections limited to fifteen students.

8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 MM. GUIET, MARTIAL, RAMBAUD, MLLE VINCENT.

13. ADVANCED GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION. Study of the more complex points of grammar. Intensive practice in writing; weekly French themes.

8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 MM. LEVY, VADON. MMES FOUREL, VADON.

Note: A written test will be given early in all the Language Courses. According to the results of this test, students will be assigned to the proper section of the course in which they registered, or to another course in this group.

II. Phonetics and Diction

21. DICTION, INTONATION, ELOCUTION. Intended to complete the work done in phonetics. Aims to impart, not an artificial pronunciation, but the expressive and musical shading for French diction, used in ordinary conversation as well as in public reading or speaking. Two sections (10:00 and 12:00, limited to twelve students) will work especially on dramatic texts. Previous training in Phonetics required.

9:00, 10:00, 12:00 MMES MONOD, MUNIER.

22. ADVANCED PHONETICS. For students with a good knowledge of phonetics and a sufficiently correct pronunciation. Aims to teach the pronunciation accepted among cultivated French people, and to illustrate the practical application of the theory of phonetics to its teaching.

9:00, 10:00 M. MALÉCOT.

23. INTERMEDIATE PHONETICS. A continued study of practical phonetics, with its application to personal pronunciation. Correct formation of French sounds, sounds in isolation and combination, oral exercises and ear training.

8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 M. MALÉCOT, MMES MÊLAT, MUNIER, WATKINS, MLLES MENOT, Nasse.

24. ELEMENTARY PHONETICS. A scientific approach to French pronunciation. Methodical comparison of French and English sounds. For students who never studied phonetics, or never attacked the problem of their pronunciation in a scientific manner. (Undergraduate credit only).

10:00, 12:00 MMES MÉLAT, WATKINS.

Notes: 1. In all Phonetics and Diction Classes, placement tests will be given at the beginning, and each section will be limited to fifteen students.

2. In all Phonetics and Diction classes, intensive audio-oral training is provided, and all students are required to make regular use of the facilities of the Language Laboratory.
III. Methods and Professional Training

31. THE TEACHING OF FRENCH IN THE HIGH SCHOOL. General aims and objectives, guiding principles, selection of students; introduction to applied linguistics; special emphasis on planning third year and four year classes; Honors grouping and Advanced Placement program; perspectives on the teaching of Literature and Civilization; audio-visual aids. Three afternoons a week will be devoted to the demonstrations of various methods and approaches, to the evaluation of textbooks and audio-visual aids. All members of the summer session are invited to attend as observers.

9:00 daily, and 2:15-3:15 three times per week. M. Buteau.

33. IMPLEMENTATION OF AN EXTRA-CURRICULAR PROGRAM. Correlation of the teaching of French with other vital subjects: history of French civilization, literature, sciences, art, and music. The creation of a French atmosphere, putting audio-oral practices to work, stimulation of student and parent interest. The organization of a successful Cercle Français, techniques, research and utilization of suitable material: songs, games, dramatizations, exhibits, films. Typical programs, worked out in full. 10:00 Miss Crandall.

Note: All the students of the School, whether or not directly interested in teaching, have access to the facilities of the Realia Museum, and are urged to consult Miss Crandall, in charge of the Museum, about special problems and needs. (See page 25).

35. THE USE OF AUDIO-VISUAL TECHNIQUES IN EDUCATION: A FRENCH APPROACH. Intended to acquaint the student with the audio-visual methods used in France for the teaching of French language and civilization, and modern languages. The course will 1.) make a general survey of the latest applications of the various technical aids to teaching; 2) study the programmes of the “Radio et Télévision scolaires” and attempt to assess their potentialities and limitations; 3) present and discuss the methods used for the training of experts, the production of audio-visual material and research in the Centre Audio-Visuel de l’École Normale de Saint-Cloud, and the C.R.E.D.I.F. 12:00 M. Rambaud.

Workshop drill practice groups, 2:15, 3:15, 4:15 Laboratory staff.

36. THE FIRST TWO YEARS OF FRENCH IN COLLEGE. Intensity for students beginning, and diversity among those continuing French in College pose specific problems. The course proposes to examine certain solutions in the light of new materials, methods and aids. 10:00 M. Watkins.

Note: All the students of the School, especially teachers or students interested in teaching, are invited to avail themselves of the Consultation Service offered, through individual appointments, by Professor Watkins, Director of the Language Laboratory, in his office at Hillcrest D.

IV. Literature and Civilization

41. STUDIES IN THE LITERATURE OF TODAY. The course will present different aspects of the most recent works in the novel and poetry. It will start with the balance sheet of existentialist literature; examine the body of contemporary critical reflection on the novel; and, after a look at the stylistic experiments of R. Queneau, survey in detail the new novel, its common tendencies and the personal universe of its representatives: the objectivist or fantastic world of A. Robbe-Grillet, the structurations of M. Butor, suspicion and infrapsychology in N. Sarraute, inexpressible communication in M. Duras; finally it will consider the new tendencies (Ph. Sollers, Le Clézio).
The poetic landscape depicted will go from the established masters: St. John Perse, Char, to the younger poets: Y. Bonnefoy, du Bouchet. 11:00 M. J-P Richard.

42. LINGUISTICS. ITS HISTORY, CONTENT, AND APPLICATIONS. The course will strive to give a panoramic view of the linguistic science, so much talked about, and so little known. Delving rapidly into its history, it will dwell on its main components, its results, and its possible uses by teachers. The European as well as the American points of view will be objectively presented. The course will avoid excessively technical language without sacrificing substance, and will try to combine wide cultural views and professional usefulness. 8:00 M. Boorsch.

44. FRENCH CIVILIZATION IN A CHANGING WORLD. The geographical, historical, economic, social, and cultural factors that make an understanding of France and its civilization possible will be studied in the light of the problems which France has to meet, faced as she is with the challenge of a fast changing world. 9:00 M. Bourcier.

52. RABELAIS, MONTAIGNE, AND THE FRENCH RENAISSANCE PROBLEM. The conflict between the medieval world picture and the modern conception of man, society and the universe, as reflected in the works of Rabelais and Montaigne. The two opposite aspects of humanism: from the optimism of Gargantua and Pantagruel to the scepticism of the Essais. Rabelais, Montaigne, and our time. 12:00 M. Paris.

53. POETRY IN THE XVIIITH CENTURY. The works of three major poets will be studied: Malherbe (1555-1628). His themes; his positive doctrine. His immediate effect (in the drama); his true school ("school of 1660"); his lasting influence. La Fontaine (1621-1695) a poet who constantly escapes outside constraint. Boileau (1636-1711) an artist in the shaping of his verses, an excellent judge of literary values. Readings from Malherbe, Poésies; La Fontaine, Fables; Boileau, Satires, Épitres, Le Lutrin, L'Art poétique. 8:00 M. Denkinger.

54. CORNEILLE'S WORLD OF COMEDY AND HEROIC-COMEDY. Several non-tragic plays of Corneille, from Mélite to Don Sanche d'Aragon, will be singled out for study, to establish the continuity of a certain style of poetic drama throughout Corneille's career, and to stress and illustrate the fecundity of his Spanish sources of inspiration. Five lectures: M. May. Directed studies: M. Baudelot.

55. THE PHILOSOPHIC PROPAGANDA IN THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. This course will be devoted to the detection and presentation of the major ideas, both political and philosophical, that were born during the "age of enlightenment." Particular emphasis, however, will be put on the innumerable ways in which philosophers as well as novelists or playwrights managed to communicate these new ideas to the public. Philosophy and literature of that period will thus be considered as an "intellectual campaign" which it actually was. Montesquieu, Voltaire, Diderot, Rousseau will be the major authors to be studied. But, on the lighter side, Marivaux and Beaumarchais will also be considered. 10:00 M. Lusseyran.

57. THEATER IN THE SECOND HALF OF THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. The period studied will range from the Comédie larmoyante to the Décret de Moscou (1812) which still regulates the Comédie-Française. Theories and practice of varied new genres: drame historique, comédie de genre, etc., together with the problems raised by the art of performance: scenery, diction, exotic or historical costume; large theaters outside Paris, innumerable private stages, and biographies of great actors, and authors (Beaumarchais in particular). Dramatic production under the Revolution and the First Empire. 12:00 M. Denkinger.

CONTEMPORARY FRENCH DRAMA (1930–1965). The purpose of this course is twofold: 1. To study the dramatic production of some major figures in the French theater over the last forty years, especially Giraudoux, Montherlant, Anouilh, Camus, Sartre. 2. To describe the evolution of the "genre" during this period and find out in which directions it is now running. This will particularly include the study of all the dramatic experimentation that is taking place from the "surrealists" up to Ionesco, Genêt, Beckett, Audiberti or Billetdoux.

THE MAGIC OF THE THEATER. The precise study of several dramatic works in which the device "the play within the play" or a similar one is used to conjure up the real personality of the characters. Especially studied will be: Corneille: L'Illusion Comique; Marivaux: Jeu de l'amour et du hasard; J. Anouilh: La Répétition; A. Gatti: La Vie imaginaire de l'éboueur Auguste G.

EXPLICATION DE TEXTES. Reading and interpretation of French texts, according to a method extensively used in French schools and universities. Demonstrations and criticisms by the instructor, preparation and oral practice by the students. The texts studied will be taken from the literature of the nineteenth century.

V. Oral Practice

ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. Carefully screened sections, limited to ten students. Intensive training in oral practice and self-expression. A detailed program for each hour; prepared discussion on assigned subjects, with definite vocabulary preparation and the building of discussion skills. (Required for the Master's Degree).

PATTERNS OF CONVERSATIONAL FRENCH. A systematic course on the graduate level for students who already possess a real degree of oral fluency but need to acquire the habit of spoken language patterns which will make possible a spontaneity in self-expression. Students are rigorously screened at enrollment time and during the first class meetings, and sections are strictly limited to ten qualified students.

VOCABULARY AND ORAL PRACTICE. A systematic course, based on a daily two-hour plan, for students who understand French readily but need to gain confidence and efficiency in speaking. The students will: 1. attend a required general meeting, for a thorough study of the topic and the materials to be used the next day in the practice sessions; 2. in these sections, carry on actual conversations on the topics and with the material presented on the preceding day.

General meeting at 8:00 M. Guilloton.

Sections: 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 M. Essen, Guilloton, Mme Levacher.
Note: Enrollment in all Oral Practice courses is on a tentative basis. At the end of the first week, students will be assigned to the proper course, according to their ability.

CURRICULUM REGULATIONS

Credits. Two credits are allowed for each course. All courses carry graduate credit, except 24 (Elementary Phonetics). All courses carry undergraduate credit. Courses 11 (Stylistics) and 12 (Advanced Composition) may, with the consent of the Dean, be taken a second summer for credit, since the material of the course is varied each year.

Requirements for Degrees. Candidates for the Master's degree must pass, before completion of their work, one advanced course at least in each of the following fields: Language (Course 12 or 11), Phonetics (23 or 22), Methods (31, 35 or 36). Civilization (44, or any other Civilization course in Group IV), and Oral Practice (71), and earn not less than six credits in advanced courses in Literature. Students who transfer credits for equivalent courses taken elsewhere may request release from the corresponding requirements. A special leaflet, sent on request, gives the rules governing the degree of Master of Arts in French. (For the D.M.L., see page 10).

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Use of French  No student will be admitted unless he is able and willing to use only French at all times, during the seven weeks of the session. Each student, when enrolled, will sign a formal statement, pledging his word of honor to observe this rule. The School reserves the right to refuse admission, at the opening of the session, to any student who fails to satisfy this basic requirement, and to dismiss, at any time, students who willfully break the rule. (See page 8).

A 'General Information' leaflet, sent on request, will give all the details of procedure for admission.

Consultations  The office of the Director is in East Forest Hall; that of the Dean is in Le Château. The entire staff of the School is at the disposal of all students for counselling, at regular consultation hours announced early in the session, or by appointment.

Books  The collections of French books, in the College Library and the Château contain over 12,000 volumes dealing with all phases of French study—language, literature, history, civilization, art, and teaching methods.

General supplies, dictionaries and textbooks published in this country can be purchased at the College Bookstore, in Proctor Hall. La Librairie française, in the Château, attempts to reproduce a bookshop in France, handling French classics and reference works, but specializing in contemporary novels, poetry, drama, and non-fiction.

Realia Museum  A unique collection of illustrative material—provincial costumes, models of regional houses and furniture, dolls, Guignol accessories, children's books, magazines, games, posters, postcards and photographs, also extensive files of other suggestions, and appropriate addresses—is on display, and may be consulted during regular daily hours.

Language Laboratory and Phonetics Center Available to all students is this modern center for the integrated use of scientific methods and equipment in all phases of language learning. Consisting of all kinds of electronic apparatus, installed in individual listening-and-recording rooms, and a large collection of recordings on tapes, it is open during regular hours, with trained assistants in charge, and consultations are arranged with members of the staff for individual coaching and correction of recordings.

Other Equipment In addition, the School is well supplied with all types of diversified equipment—maps, charts, film strips and slides on French geography, history and art. Movies of an instructional nature are shown and discussed. Extensive use is made of mimeographed or lithographed material, each class being supplied with outlines, bibliographies, and exercises, free or at nominal cost.

Planned Activities The organized activities of the School are designed to make the life of the students as enjoyable and as profitable as possible:

Formal lectures, or informal "causeries," are occasionally presented by the Director, other professors, or visiting guest lecturers.
A weekly "Gazette" is published by the School, giving advance notice of all interesting events, information about job openings, etc.
Every Sunday morning, the College Chapel is used by the French School for an hour of instrumental and vocal music, and readings from spiritual or philosophical writings. The French School Choir of one hundred voices is a celebrated feature.
In cooperation with the other Language Schools, the French School also presents foreign moving pictures, on Wednesday afternoons and evenings, and chamber music or vocal concerts by guest artists, on Sunday evenings.
Picnics, community sings, sports, and a picturesque buffet lawn-supper afford occasions for continued association with the faculty and easy, spontaneous use of the language. Above all, the School is able to offer five dramatic presentations during the summer, usually on Friday nights. Carefully prepared, with painstaking attention to scenery, lighting, costuming, and staging, they always attract a large and appreciative audience, provide relaxation, and acquaint the teacher-students with simple yet effective plays that can be duplicated in their own schools without undue effort.

Dormitories The main dormitories of the French School are Le Château, Forest Hall, and Battell North, Center and South.

The identifying feature of the French School, and a cherished landmark of the campus, le Château was inspired by the Pavillon Henri IV of the palace of Fontainebleau. It contains two salons, two classrooms, a library, and the offices of the Dean.
In Forest Hall, one of the finest dormitories on the campus, all rooms are single. In addition to beautiful reception and dining rooms, it contains the offices of the Director.
Les enfants: Mon papa! mon papa! mon papa!
(Molière's Monsieur de Pourceaugnac, as staged last year by the French School)

Battell North, Center and South, on the approach to the Chateau, are built in a modified Georgian style, with pleasant rooms of modern design.

Dining Halls In the three dining halls of the School, the students gather at small tables, with a member of the staff presiding. Students and staff members rotate according to a prearranged schedule, enabling all to get better acquainted.

Scholarships Each summer, a certain number of scholarships, usually covering part or all of the tuition fee, are awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Grateful acknowledgement is made of the following special scholarships, included in the total number of available scholarships, and made possible through the generosity of friends of the School:

Two James Richardson Scholarships, by Mrs. James Richardson of Providence, R. I.;
The Stella Christie Scholarship, by Mrs. C. C. Conover of Kansas City;
Several scholarships, by anonymous donors;
An unspecified number of scholarships, by the French Government;
A Mlle Léa Binand Scholarship, established by Mrs. Robert Christie, of Montclair, N. J., in honor of a member of long standing of the French School and the Middlebury College French Department Faculties, to be awarded through l'Amicale de Middlebury;
Two $100 and two full-tuition scholarships, by l'Amicale de Middlebury; the Edith Packer Scholarship, in memory of a friend of long standing of the French School, one of the founders of L'Amicale; and the John D. Brennan Scholarship, in memory of one of the first members of L'Amicale, a French School graduate, prematurely deceased in a promising teaching career.

Self-Help The only other way in which a student may assist in defraying his expenses is by waiting on table in the French dining halls, or by helping with kitchen work. Remuneration may vary, depending on the type of work done, but will, at least, cover the expense of board.

Scholarship and Self-Help Applications Application blanks for either form of financial aid may be obtained from the Dean's Office. They must be filed before April 1st in order to be considered for the first listing of awards. Announcement of awards is made about April 15.

Graduate School in France Middlebury College also operates a Graduate School of French in France. A selected group of graduate students spend the academic year enrolled at the University of Paris, working under the supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. The Middlebury Master of Arts degree is awarded to those who successfully complete an approved program of studies. See the inside back cover of this bulletin.

Placement Service The French School maintains an active file of offers of teaching positions. This service is available to students without charge.

Amicale de Middlebury This Association of Alumni, Professors, Students and Friends of the French School is destined to maintain the spirit of fellowship and comradeship among all those who have been associated with the School, or who approve of its aims; and to promote activities designed to further those aims. Particulars will be sent on request.

Correspondence Correspondence concerning admission to the school, courses, credits, degrees, scholarships, self-help and the 'Amicale' should be addressed to the Dean of the French Summer School, Le Château, Middlebury, Vt.

Correspondence concerning rooms, fees and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vt.
Deutsche Schule

(FROM JULY 2 TO AUGUST 17)

THE MIDDLEBURY GERMAN SCHOOL, which will hold its thirty-eighth session this summer, is the forerunner of all the Middlebury Language Schools. It was founded in 1915 by Professor Marian P. Whitney and Professor Lilian L. Stroebe, both of Vassar College. Dr. Stroebe was its Director until 1917. When the School reopened in the summer of 1931, Professor Ernst Feise of the Johns Hopkins University was appointed its Director, and the School was located in the village of Bristol. Upon the retirement of Dr. Feise in 1948, Dr. Werner Neuse, who had been Dean of the School since 1932, was appointed Director. The School returned to the Middlebury Campus in 1951, where it occupies as its center Pearsons Hall, in which it was begun fifty years ago.

Three prominent guest lecturers will come direct from Germany. We are happy to announce the appointment of Professor Walter Johannes Schröder of the Johannes Gutenberg-Universität at Mainz as Visiting Professor. He holds a chair as “Ordentlicher Professor” for Philology, has written extensively on the medieval German epics, and was Dean of the Philosophical Faculty from 1961 to 1963. He will lecture on Early German Literature and hold a seminar on Friedrich von Hardenberg (Novalis).

Professor Gerhard Storz, former Kultusminister of the Land Baden-Württemberg and now Professor of Modern German Literature at the Eberhard-Karls-Universität at Tübingen, was a member of our German School Faculty in the summers of 1956, 1960, and 1963. After serving as Visiting Professor at the University of Kansas during the spring semester he will lecture at our School on The Classical Period and hold a seminar on Eduard Mörike.

Dr. Hans Hofstätter, former assistant at the Kunstgeschichtliche Institut of the University of Mainz, will come to us from the Waldemar-Klein-Verlag in Baden-Baden. He has lectured widely in Germany on periods of Art History, e.g. at the Ruprecht-Karl-Universität at Heidelberg. Dr. Hofstätter will lecture on German Art, particularly of the last two centuries, and hold a seminar on the Relationship between Literature and Art.

WALTER JOHANNES SCHRÖDER, Visiting Professor. Universities of Rostock and Hamburg, 1929–35; Ph.D., 1933; State Teachers’ Examination, 1935. 11:00 HERR STORZ.

31A. HEINRICH VON KLEIST. A detailed study of Kleist’s dramatic and prose works to enable the students to gain a deeper understanding of one of Germany’s greatest writers.

9:00 HERR RESKE.

35. NINETEENTH CENTURY FICTION. ‘Novellen’ and stories of authors of the age of realism (Keller, Meyer, Storm, and others) will be read and discussed. The reading and speaking ability of the participants will be developed gradually. (Introductory literature course not open to advanced students).

9:00, 10:00, 11:00 FRL. ETtenberger, HERREN HAAS, SCHACHER.

36. MODERN DRAMA. Reading and interpretation of some of the most important dramatic works since the turn of the century, from G. Hauptmann to Dürrenmatt. The study will cover the political, social, and philosophical background of the time.

12:00 HERR BANZGER.

37B. MODERN NOVELLE AND SHORT STORY. Readings of Novellen and short stories by modern authors after World War II with interpretations and analyses of the two types of epic form.

8:00 HERR HOFFMEISTER.

II. Civilization

43. GERMAN ART, 1750–1950. A survey of German architecture, sculpture, paintings, and graphic arts of the last two hundred years. After a brief discussion of the late Baroque, the main emphasis will be laid on Classicism, Romanticism, and Biedermeier; Realism and Impressionism, and more recent trends.

11:00 HERR HOFSTÄTTER.

43A. GERMAN ART AND GERMAN LITERATURE. The interaction between German art and German literature will be the main contents of the course. Literary works will be brought into focus against the artistic trends of the period. (Seminar course with limited enrollment).

10:00 HERR HOFSTÄTTER.

III. Language

51. THE GERMAN LANGUAGE. An analysis of contemporary German. The vocabulary, grammatical forms, and syntax will be examined for their thought content and underlying structural forces.

12:00 HERR TILLER.

55. PRACTICAL PHONETICS. A study of the sounds, rhythm, and melody of spoken German with the objective of perfecting the student’s pronunciation and expression. The classroom discussion will be supplemented by obligatory practice sessions in small groups on two afternoons and by intensive use of the Language Laboratory.

9:00 HERR TILLER.
IV. Language Practice

61. ADVANCED STYLISTICS. A course specially designed and obligatory for students who plan to attend a German university. Practice in writing seminar papers, taking class-room notes, and obtaining stylistic flexibility in the use of written German. (Attendance restricted to advanced students.)

8:00, 10:00 HERREN HAAS, HOFFMEISTER, SCHACHER.

62. ADVANCED COMPOSITION. A systematic study of style, shades of meaning, adequacy of expression. A thorough knowledge of German grammar is prerequisite for this course.

8:00 HERREN HIRSCH, RESKE.

65. COMPOSITION AND GRAMMAR REVIEW. A systematic review of German grammar and syntax. Compositions of gradually increasing difficulty, proceeding from concrete observations to theoretical and abstract discussion.

8:00, 9:00 FRAULEIN ETtenberger, Herr Hirsch, Frau Reske.

67. ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. An intensive training in oral self-expression, in small groups. There will be a detailed program for each hour on specially assigned subjects. (Required for the Master’s degree.)

8:00, 9:00, 11:00 LEHRKÖRPER.

69. INTERMEDIATE ORAL PRACTICE. For students who can show a fair knowledge of the spoken language but still need more fluency and accuracy of expression.

8:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00 LEHRKÖRPER.

70. ORAL PRACTICE. A systematic course in oral self-expression, stressing enunciation and intonation. Prepared and extemporaneous talks, dialogues, and group discussions. (Undergraduate credit only.)

9:00 LEHRKÖRPER.

NOTE: A written and oral test will be given for all new students on the Saturday preceding the opening of classes in order to determine the proper course level to which each student should be assigned.

V. The Teaching of German

71. METHODS OF TEACHING. A critical study and analysis of the current methods of modern language teaching on all levels from grade school to college. Emphasis will be laid on the practical approach to teaching and the use of such audiovisual aids as records, tape recorders, films, and other modern equipment. There will be critical discussions of textbooks as well as some practice teaching. The course is planned for prospective teachers or teachers of German in Graded Schools, High Schools, and Colleges.

10:00 FRAULEIN KRITSCH.

Credits

Two credits will be allowed for all courses meeting five hours a week. All courses count toward the baccalaureate degree and all except 66 and 70 count toward the Master’s.

E. THE TEACHING OF GERMAN

71. Methods of Teaching

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

The Aims  The school is primarily designed for advanced students who, possessing a fair speaking and reading knowledge of German, wish to perfect their ability to use it, and desire to deepen and broaden their acquaintance will with German literature as well as with its cultural background and the soil on which it has grown. A limited number of undergraduates who are strongly recommended by their instructors may be admitted.

Accommodations  The School’s headquarters, dormitory for women, and Social Hall is Pearsons Hall, the same building in which fifty years ago the first German School was opened. Faculty and students dine together in Gifford Hall, rotating at tables according to a fixed schedule so that all may get better acquainted. After the weekday noon meal, German songs are sung in the Lounge in Alumni Hall. The historic Painter and Starr Halls and one floor of the new Allen Hall on the campus will again be the School’s dormitories for 1965.

Lectures and Plays  Beside a number of scheduled lectures, there will be readings, games, and plays after dinner on a regular schedule. “Literarische Sonntagsandachten,” not conflicting with local church services, will be held every Sunday morning.

Recreation and Sports  On the first two Saturdays, the school organizes trips or hikes into the near-by Green Mountains or to lakes in the Champlain Valley. Faculty members regularly participate in these outings, and students will enjoy this period of week-end relaxation during which the foreign language is used in an atmosphere different from that of the classroom. On some evenings all students are urged to join in the folk dances which are taught on the lawn at the foot of Pearsons.

Bookstore  At the Bücherstube in Pearsons Hall books used in the courses may be purchased; also other books imported directly from Germany will be offered for sale at moderate prices.

Opportunities for Service  All waiters and waitresses in the German School dining hall must be able to speak German. Opportunity is therefore offered to a limited number of students to earn their board for return in their service in the kitchen or dining hall. Those interested should file application blanks with the Director of the School before April first.

Scholarships  The German School offers several scholarships of $100.00 or more for the 1965 session. Besides these, three special scholarships are available:

The Martin Sommerfeld Memorial Scholarship, established by the students and faculty in memory of Professor Sommerfeld who taught in the summer of 1939.

The Arno Schirokauer Memorial Scholarship, established by FIDES in memory of Professor Schirokauer who formerly taught in the German School.
The Ernst Feise Scholarship, established by FIDES in honor of Professor Feise who was the Director of the School from 1931 to 1948.

These three scholarships are from $100 to $300 each. An unspecified number of scholarships by the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany are offered. All are awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application blanks may be obtained from the Director of the German School and must be filed before March 15. The awards and the appointments will be announced by April first.

Graduate School in Germany Middlebury College also operates a Graduate School of German in Germany. A selected group of graduate students spend the academic year enrolled at the University of Mainz, working under the supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. The Middlebury Master of Arts degree is awarded to those who successfully complete an approved program of studies. See the inside back cover of this bulletin.

FIDES Former students, faculty, and friends of the German School have formed a Vereinigung der Freunde der Deutschen Schule (FIDES) whose aim is to keep all friends of the school informed about its activities, and to preserve and promote the spirit of "Verbundenheit" between them. All members are cordially welcomed to visit the school during the summer.

Address Correspondence concerning courses, credits, degrees, and admission to the School, should be addressed to Prof. Werner Neuse, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont 05753.

Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information should be addressed to Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont 05753.
Scuola Italiana

(From July 2 to August 19)

The Italian School of Middlebury College was founded in 1932 by the late Dr. Gabriella Bosano. Dr. Camillo P. Merlino, of Boston University, was its Director for ten years, beginning with the 1938 session. Since 1947, Dr. Salvatore J. Castiglione, of the Institute of Languages and Linguistics, Georgetown University, has been the Director.

The Director takes pleasure in announcing that Professor Giuliano Innamorati, of the University of Florence, will be Visiting Professor for the 1965 session, that Dr. Ruggero Stefanini, of the University of California (Berkeley), will also join the faculty, and that Dr. Pierina Castiglione, Dr. Giuliana Cavallini, Miss Annunciata Costa, Dr. Marisa Lederer and Mr. Remo Trivelli will be members of the Italian School faculty again this year.

The following courses of special interest are included in the curriculum for this year: Contemporary Italian Poetry, which will be offered by Professor Innamorati, The History of the Italian Language, Le Opere minori di Dante and The Teaching of Italian.

Included among the gift scholarships available for the 1965 session are five scholarships offered by Dr. Nicholas Locascio, three scholarships given by the Association of Alumni and Friends of the Italian School in memory of Miss Gabriella Bosano, and several Cesare Barbieri partial-tuition scholarships.

The fifteenth annual meeting of the Italian School Alumni and Friends Association will take place in Middlebury, July 14-16.

THE COURSES OF STUDY

I. Language

1. INTERMEDIATE GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION. A thorough review of the structure of the language; vocabulary building; written and oral practice, including free composition; reading comprehension; accurate translation. This course is intended for students who have a good elementary knowledge of Italian; it aims to impart a reasonable degree of proficiency in the various aspects of the language.

8:00 Signor Trivelli.

2. ADVANCED GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION. An advanced course for students possessing a good knowledge of Italian. It will consist of translations from English to Italian of texts of increasing difficulty, and practice in original composition. Frequent reference will be made to grammar and syntax in the systematic study of idioms.

8:00 Signora Lederer.

3. ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. Daily training in current Italian, designed to help the student gain assurance in self-expression in the language. Word study, oral reports on specific topics, and a systematic building up of the conversational vocabulary will be based on assigned topics. Use will be made of the tape recording facilities of the Language Laboratory.

8:00 Signora Lederer.

4. ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. Intensive training in oral practice, public speaking and self-expression. A detailed program arranged for each hour; prepared discussion on assigned subjects, with definite vocabulary preparation; short debates, oral reports, oral criticism of books and articles.

9:00 Signorina Costa, Signor Trivelli.

5. PHONETICS. A practical study of Italian Phonetics, based on the reading aloud of carefully chosen prose and poetry selections; emphasis not only on the correct pronunciation of Italian sounds, but also on the proper intonation of spoken Italian; classroom work will be integrated with extensive use of records and tape recordings.

10:00 Signora Castiglione.

6. STYLISTICS. This course is designed to meet, through carefully planned exercises, the needs of those who have already acquired general proficiency in the language. It aims to develop natural fluency, both in writing and speaking, through emphasizing the difference between what is merely correct and what is Italian.

8:00 Signora Castiglione.

II. Methods of Teaching

10. THE TEACHING OF ITALIAN. Discussion of methods and problems; examination of audio-visual aids and other materials available for the teaching of Italian; evaluation of textbooks; assembling of material for the teacher’s use in the classroom; development of an experimental course in Italian.

11:00 Signorina Costa.

III. Literature and Culture

11. GENERAL VIEW OF ITALIAN CIVILIZATION. I. (Eleventh through Fifteenth Centuries.) The major contributions of Italian genius to the Western World in literature and in the arts will be considered against the historical background of the Middle Ages and the Early Renaissance.

12:00 Signorina Cavallini.

12. GENERAL VIEW OF ITALIAN CIVILIZATION. II. (To be offered in 1966.) (Sixteenth through Eighteenth Centuries.)

13. ITALIAN PROSE MASTERPIECES. This course is designed to acquaint the student with the most important prose writers of Italian literature, from Dante to modern times. Readings, discussions, reports.

11:00 Signorina Cavallini.

14. DANTE AND HIS TIMES (THE PURGATORIO). In the course of three summers the Divina Commedia is read and analyzed. In 1965 the Purgatorio will be the object of special study. This course may be taken for credit in three successive summers. 10:00  Signor Innamorati.

15. SURVEY OF POETRY. (To be offered in 1966.)

16. THE HISTORY OF THE ITALIAN LANGUAGE. (From the end of the Eighteenth Century to the present.) A study of the “questione della lingua,” from Illuminism to the Romantic era; linguistic problems following the unification of Italy; national language and regional dialects; spoken language and literary language of the Twentieth Century. Extensive readings of representative texts. 11:00 Signor Stefanini.

17. LE OPERE MINORI DI DANTE. The first part of this course will be devoted to reading and commenting on the most significant poems of the Canzoniere and of the Vita Nuova. In the second part of the course the Convivio and the De Monarchia will be studied and a thorough analysis will be made of the De Vulgari eloquentia. 12:00 Signor Stefanini.

18. CONTEMPORARY ITALIAN POETRY. A study of the development of Italian poetry of the Twentieth Century and a historic and stylistic interpretation of its major exponents, from post-impressionism to the avant-garde movements of today (from Ungaretti to Luzzi). 9:00 Signor Innamorati.

19. RESEARCH. All students, especially candidates for the doctorate who are working on a problem of research, are invited to profit by the individual guidance offered by the school staff. Consultations will be arranged through the Director. Such assistance is gladly offered, and students are urged to take advantage of it. Signor Castiglione and Staff.

Credits Two credits or semester hours are allowed for each course, and all courses count toward the Master’s degree. (See also page 9.) Course 2 (Adv. Grammar and Comp.) and Course 6 (Stylistics) may be taken twice for credit, as the material of the course varies each year. Course 14 (Dante) may be taken three times for credit, once on the Inferno, once on the Purgatorio, and once on the Paradiso.

Use of Italian Students must sign and keep a formal pledge to use Italian exclusively for the duration of the session. The traditionally congenial atmosphere and warm spirit of cooperation at the Italian
School contribute much to making the student feel that the exclusive use of Italian is both a natural and pleasant task.

Italian Dormitory
Forest Hall West, one of the most attractive buildings on the Middlebury College campus, will be headquarters for the Italian School in 1965, both for dormitory and dining hall and for the School's offices. Equipped with several social rooms and surrounded by spacious lawns shaded by trees, this dormitory lends itself to the development of an atmosphere of friendly informality so conducive to "oral practice"—one of the main features of the Middlebury experience. Dr. and Mrs. Castiglione and other faculty members will reside on campus, thus actively promoting the spirit of good fellowship in an Italian atmosphere.

The Italian Dining Room
In the attractive dining hall of the Italian School, the hum of conversation is natural and spontaneous. Prompted and guided by understanding instructors who preside at each table, the students quickly overcome their linguistic shyness. In order to get better acquainted with one another and with all the instructors, students are required to rotate according to a fixed schedule.

Activities
The morning hours will be given over to class work, leaving the afternoon free for recreation and study. Students and teachers will meet frequently in the evening for readings, lectures, choral assemblies, and social gatherings. All students are expected to take part in the weekly choral assembly and to attend extracurricular lectures and programs. The school picnics, informal instruction in folk dances, tennis, the popular game of "bocce," as well as hiking, afford further pleasant relaxation. Members of the Italian School are cordially invited to attend the concerts and films sponsored by the five Language Schools.

Books
A well-balanced and constantly expanding collection of Italian books, housed in the College Library, amply provides for the needs of the students. In addition, textbooks and other aids for the teaching of Italian will be available for examination. In Forest West there is also an Italian bookshop at which students will be able to purchase the texts required for class work, as well as dictionaries and a variety of books of classic and modern Italian literature.

Scholarships
For the summer of 1965, a number of scholarships are available. These will be awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application should be made to the Director before April first; awards will be announced about April 15. Grateful acknowledgement is made of the following special scholarships, made possible through the generosity of friends of the School:
The Italian Teachers’ Club of Hartford, Conn., Scholarship, offered for the twenty-sixth consecutive year.

Three scholarships given by the Association of Alumni and Friends of the Italian School of Middlebury College in memory of Miss Gabriella Bosano.

Five scholarships offered by Dr. Nicholas Locascio, of New York City.

A number of Cesare Barbieri partial-tuition scholarships, made possible by a gift from the Cesare Barbieri Endowment.

A scholarship given by Dr. Herbert H. Golden in memory of Hilda R. Golden.

Self-Help Another important way in which students may assist in defraying their expenses is by waiting on table in the Italian School dining room. All waiters and waitresses are students at the school who are able to use Italian exclusively in the dining room. The remuneration for this service is their board, and $40 to be credited to their room charges. Those interested should make application to Dr. Castiglione before April first; awards will be announced about April 15.

Alumni and Friends Association Membership in the Association of Alumni and Friends of the Italian School of Middlebury College, established in 1950, is open to students, past and present, faculty members and friends of the Italian School. The aims of the Association are “to encourage and advance, culturally and materially, the Italian School,” to keep its members informed of the activities of the School and its students, and to maintain the spirit of cordiality which the members associate with the Italian School.

Graduate School in Italy  Middlebury College also operates a Graduate School of Italian in Italy. A selected group of graduate students spend the academic year enrolled at the University of Florence, working under the supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. The Middlebury Master of Arts degree is awarded to those who successfully complete an approved program of studies. See the inside back cover of this bulletin.

Correspondence  Correspondence concerning admission, credits, and choice of courses should be addressed to the Director of the Middlebury College Italian Summer School, Dr. Salvatore J. Castiglione, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont.

Correspondence concerning fees, rooms, and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont.
Institute of Soviet Studies

Conducted entirely in Russian

Director: DR. MISCHA H. FAYER

JULY 2 TO AUGUST 19, 1965

Initiated in 1958 by a grant from the Rockefeller Foundation, the Institute of Soviet Studies offers courses in Russian by outstanding native authorities in the fields of the sciences, economics, foreign policy, government, geography, the press and communist propaganda techniques. The Institute aims to give the specialist in these fields near-native fluency in Russian and competence in the technical terminology of his specialization, not only for reading and research, but also for oral use; and to train students for diplomatic, scientific and other careers. The courses are especially valuable for specialists, scientists, and students preparing for cultural exchange.

Organization Students enrolled in the Institute enjoy all the privileges and share in all the activities of the Russian School. They are pledged to the exclusive use of Russian; they share the dormitory and dining room facilities of the School; they attend the evening lectures, concerts, plays, and all other extra-curricular activities in the Russian atmosphere.

Admission Requirements Adequate command of Russian for advanced specialized study in the language, and its exclusive use in and outside the classroom. Previous training in one or more of the above-mentioned fields.

281. ADVANCED SCIENTIFIC RUSSIAN. Scientific Russian for scientists and engineers. Concentration will be on technology, mining, metallurgy, nuclear physics and electronics. Soviet source materials. Reports and some translations of technical material into English, class discussions.

M. SAHAROFF.

Rotation Courses The following courses are offered on a rotation basis, and will be repeated every second, third or fourth year:
Credits and Requirements  All courses in the Institute carry two credits toward the M.A. and the D.M.L. degrees. The Institute awards the M.A. degree in the field of Russian and Soviet Area studies. To satisfy the requirements for this degree, the candidate must take the following courses in the Russian School or their equivalents, previously approved by the Director.

Group I—21 or 23

Group II—one survey course of the 19th century (28, 30, 33, 34) and one course on contemporary literature (31 or 39) and one course on an individual author (29, 35, 38, 39)

Group III—a history or civilization course on the Tsarist Period and a history or civilization course on the Soviet Period offered in the Institute.

Similar courses, offered in the Russian School, are also acceptable: (40, 41, 44, 46, 47) with the approval of the Director.

Admission  The Institute is essentially a graduate school and the courses are of an advanced nature, requiring advanced preparation in Russian and in the field of specialization. All applicants must provide evidence of sufficient competence in Russian. A few undergraduates may be accepted if they are strongly recommended by their professors as having adequate preparation. Students may enter without being candidates for degrees. All students are carefully screened and placed in the classes best suited for their advancement.
The Russian School of Middlebury College was founded in 1945 by the Director, Dr. Mischa H. Fayer. Starting with 40 students and a staff of four, the School’s facilities and faculty have increased to accommodate 150 students. The rapid growth of the School testifies to the increasing need in our country for closer knowledge of Russia, past and present, and for deeper understanding of recent trends in her development. Mindful of this fact, the Director has organized a program of courses to answer present needs and to prepare American specialists in the field of Russian studies.

In addition to the specialized and technical courses offered by the Institute of Soviet Studies, the offerings of the Russian School will also be of great interest to government and armed forces personnel and to students of history, political science and the sciences. In its twenty-first session, the School, in combination with its Institute, is equipped as never before, to provide thorough training for students of Russia’s humanistic culture, as well as for those preparing for teaching, diplomatic, scientific, and other careers.

One of the highlights of the session will be the eleventh “Alumni Weekend” (July 30-August 1).

The curriculum will include the following lecture and seminar courses: Stylistics, Pushkin and His Time, Development of Russian Drama, Maxim Gorky: His Works and Influence, Advanced Phonetics for Teachers, Russian Folklore, and Methods of Teaching Russian. Institute courses are also open to qualified students in the Russian School. (See pages 50–54).

Evening Lectures An especially rich extra-curricular program is planned, including lectures by members of the staff and guest speakers. These lectures are regularly held in the Russian Lounge.

The Curriculum Survey courses are intended as a basis for more specialized courses in succeeding sessions. The research course (50) will afford opportunity for concentrated study on a subject of major interest. Except for certain basic courses offered every summer, advanced work is on a rotation basis, giving the student an opportunity to cover thoroughly, in a period of three or four years, the fundamental phases of Russian thought and letters.

Students in the Russian School may also enroll, without extra charge, for one or more of the specialized courses in the Institute of Soviet Studies, with the consent of the Director, if they have sufficient preparation in the special field.

Program for Teachers To meet the urgent demand for Russian teachers at the secondary and college levels, a special three-year curriculum, also satisfying most of the requirements for the M.A. degree, was initiated in 1959 for qualified candidates. A special certificate will be issued to those completing 18 units in the required courses.

Prerequisites: Courses 11, 12, and 14 or equivalents
First Year: Courses 21, 22 and a 19th century survey course
Second Year: Courses 23, 24 or 25, one course in Group III
Third Year: Courses 29 or 35 or 38, and 40 or 41, and 60
Recommended Courses: 31, 32, 39; 35, 38; 40, 41; 290, 291

THE COURSES OF STUDY

I. Language

1. GRAMMAR REVIEW AND ORAL DRILL. Thorough and systematic review of Russian grammar and basic vocabulary. Drill on pronunciation, conversation, and reading. Intended for students whose background in Russian is insufficient to enable them to carry a full load at the graduate level. (Undergraduate credit only.)

   MRS. KALIKIN.

11. ADVANCED GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION—FIRST LEVEL. Compositions of gradually increasing difficulty. Study of synonyms and idioms; dictation. Practical application of grammatical principles.

   MRS. KALIKIN, MRS. KLIMOV.

12. ADVANCED CONVERSATION—FIRST LEVEL. Daily training in conversational Russian, designed to provide the student with assurance in self-expression and a basic active vocabulary. Oral reports and class discussions requiring active student participation. Facilities of the Language Laboratory will be used, including listening to tape recordings and self-testing.

   MR. JANIN, MRS. KLIMOV.

14. PRACTICAL PHONETICS. A course intended for students at the intermediate level who need systematic training in Russian pronunciation. Methodical comparison of English and Russian sounds. The Language Laboratory will be used. Enrollment will be restricted to those most in need of remedial work. Mrs. Vukanovich and Staff.

15. ADVANCED GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION—SECOND LEVEL. Study of the more complex points of grammar with special emphasis on the aspects and on verbs of motion. Practice in the use of idiomatic expressions. The work will consist of exercises, original compositions, and class discussions. Mrs. Isyumov, Mr. Žekulin.

21. ADVANCED COMPOSITION AND SYNTAX—THIRD LEVEL. Intended for students with a thorough knowledge of grammar. Intensive review of syntax. Original compositions on a great variety of topics. Class discussions. Mrs. Wolkonsky, Mr. Kalikin.

22. ADVANCED CONVERSATION—THIRD LEVEL. Oral analysis and criticism of assigned books and articles. Reading of newspapers and discussion of current events. Intended primarily to develop self-confidence in expressing ideas in Russian. Miss Alexeeff, Mr. Janin.

23. STYLISTICS. Intended for students with native or near-native command of Russian who wish to develop greater precision in expression and a finer feeling for shades of meaning and style. Reading of texts of various types and difficulty will be combined with written compositions. Mrs. Kosinski.

24. ADVANCED PHONETICS FOR TEACHERS. The purpose of this course is to give students a scientific basis for use in teaching, as well as to improve their own pronunciation. Theoretical lessons in phonetics and intonation will be combined with practical exercises. The course is designed primarily for degree candidates and for those preparing to teach. Mrs. Vukanovich.

II. Literature

29. PUSHKIN AND HIS TIME. A study of Pushkin's poetic, dramatic and historical works and their influence on the literary and social trends of 19th century Russia. Pushkin’s role in the promotion of progressive and democratic ideas and in shaping the literary language will receive particular attention. Mr. Žekulin.

34. DEVELOPMENT OF RUSSIAN DRAMA. A survey of the growth and development of the Russian drama, with special emphasis on the outstanding dramatists of the 18th, 19th, and the beginning of the 20th centuries. Mr. Liwszyć.

39. MAXIM GORKY: HIS WORKS AND INFLUENCE. Study of Gorky’s significant short stories, novels, and essays; and of his literary and cultural influences against the background of the Tsarist and Soviet regimes. Lectures, oral and written reports, class discussions. Mrs. Wolkonsky.

III. Civilization

See also Institute Courses, pages 51–54.

43. RUSSIAN FOLKLORE. Historical and social background of Russian folklore, and its general features; epic tales (the Byliny); songs and rituals; apocryphal songs and tales; fairy tales; animal epos; proverbs and sayings. Mrs. Kosinski.
50. RESEARCH. Degree candidates, who are working on a problem of research in Russian language, literature and civilization, are invited to profit by the individual guidance offered by the School staff. Personal consultations will be arranged through the Director. Such assistance is gladly offered, and students are urged to take advantage of it.

Mr. Fayer, with the collaboration of members of the staff.

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Use of Russian To qualify for admission, students must be able and willing to speak only Russian during the entire session, even in their rooms and off campus. At the opening of the School each student will be required to pledge his word of honor to observe this rule. Although it is the duty of the faculty to enforce this rule at all times, their sympathetic encouragement to use the language freely will, in a short time, make it appear as the only language natural in the congenial, friendly Russian atmosphere. The School reserves the right to dismiss, at any time, students who willfully break the rule.

Living Accommodations Stewart Hall, one of the newest and one of the finest dormitories on the campus, will be the headquarters of the Russian School, providing attractive accommodations for the growing school. The view from Stewart lounge is superb. The Director’s Office is in Hillcrest. In Proctor Dining Hall, students will eat in small groups, each table presided over by a member of the faculty. A system of rotation at meals provides opportunity for all to become better acquainted.

Activities All extra-curricular activities play an important part in mastering the language, and students are expected to participate actively. The schedule of classes is arranged to leave the afternoons free for study and recreation. Picnics, excursions to nearby lakes and mountains, “vecherinki” with musical and dramatic entertainments, lectures by instructors and guest speakers, informal singing, and Russian movies, provide ample recreational activity. Regular evenings for study of Russian dances have been set aside. Weekly sings are held in the Proctor Lounge. Several plays will be staged under the direction of Mr. Janin. The highlights of the session will include the eleventh annual Alumni Weekend—July 30–August 1.

Books In addition to textbooks, the Russian Bookstore, located in Atwater House, carries classics and up-to-date novels, poetry, drama, and non-fiction. General supplies, and textbooks published in this country, may be purchased at the College Bookstore.

Realia Collection The purpose of this collection is to acquaint prospective teachers with visual aids which may prove helpful in their teaching; also to display material illustrative of the Russian creative genius—pictures, sculpture, icons, costumes, architectural models, objets d'art, etc., some of which are for sale. The Collection, housed in the Russian School Bookstore in Atwater House, will be open during regular Bookstore hours.

Language Laboratory Russian School students are urged to avail themselves of the facilities afforded by the Language Laboratory, including equipment for speech recording, play-backs with earphones, and individual practice rooms. The laboratory is open at regular hours. Mrs. Vukanovich will be available for assisting all those interested in improving their speech.

Self-Help Students may assist in defraying their expenses by waiting on table in the Russian dining hall. The remuneration is board, plus a credit of $40 on the room charge. Those interested should apply to the Director before April first. Appointments will be announced about April 15.

Scholarships  A limited number of scholarships of $50 to $100 is available. Only students who would be unable to attend without such financial assistance are eligible. These scholarships will be awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application must be made to the Director before March 15. Awards will be announced about April first. The Alumni Organization also provides a Scholarship. Application should be made to the President or Secretary of the organization by March 15. Only former students of the Russian School are eligible.

The Margaret L. Fayer Memorial Scholarship is awarded to a returning student under the auspices of the Alumni organization of the Russian School. Applications should be sent to the Director before March 15.

The Anastasia Pressman Memorial Scholarship is awarded to a student working for a graduate degree at Middlebury, preferably a prospective teacher of Russian. Application should be made to the Director before March 15.

Correspondence  Correspondence concerning courses, credits, degrees, and admission to the School or the Institute should be addressed to Dr. Mischa H. Fayer, Director of the Russian Summer School, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont. Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College.
Escuela Española

The Spanish School, in its Forty-Ninth Session, offers, in accordance with its leading position among language teaching institutions, a broad and varied program of Spanish studies, in language, literature and civilization, both of Spain and Latin-America.

The visiting professors will be: Professor Carlos Clavería, the well known Spanish scholar and literary critic, Director of the Instituto Español of London, who will give a course on the History of the Spanish Language, and another on Don Quixote; Professor José García Lora, head of the Latin-American Studies in the University of Birmingham, who will lecture on The novels of Pérez Galdós and the Essay of the Twentieth Century; Professor Raul M. Castagnino, of the University of La Plata (Argentina), author of numerous books on literary criticism, who will present a course on The dramatic genre in Argentina and Uruguay, and another on Stylistic analysis of three literary periods in Argentinian literature.

The Spanish School welcomes back Professor Joaquin Casalduero, who will lecture on The Spanish Theater of the Golden Age and on The Spanish Theater of the Nineteenth Century. The Director, Professor Emilio González López, will analyze The Spanish Novel of the Twentieth Century. Professor Manuel Asensio will present a course on The History of Spanish Civilization; and Professor Manuel Álvarez Morales will lecture on Early Spanish-American Literature. A new member of the Faculty, Carlos Ripoll, will analyze the Latin-American Novel and the Latin-American Essay.

Those interested in perfecting their ability in the Spanish language can count on the guidance of a group of expert teachers on Phonetics and Grammar who have made our school the best known in the field.

Credits Two credits or semester hours will be allowed for each course unless otherwise specified. Course 3 may, with the consent of the Director, be taken a second summer for credit, since the material of this course is varied each year.

Requirements for Degrees Candidates for the Master's Degree must pass, before the completion of their work, an advanced course in each of the following subjects: Oral Practice, Grammar, Composition, Phonetics, and Methods, i.e. Courses 1, 2, 3, 4 and 10. In addition, at least 10 credits must be earned in the fields of Spanish and Spanish-American Literature and Civilization. Students who have transferred credit for an equivalent course taken elsewhere may request release from the requirement. With the exception of certain basic courses, which are offered every summer, the program changes yearly in a cyclic form.

Use of Spanish No student is admitted who is not willing and able to use Spanish exclusively while in attendance. Each student is required to pledge his word of honor to observe this regulation.

Books General supplies and text books published in this country may be purchased at the College Bookstore, in the Student Union Building. The Librería of the Spanish School is located in the social room of Hepburn Hall. Here the required books in the literature and civilization courses, and other titles printed abroad, are on sale.

The College Library has a Spanish library of over 6,000 titles, covering the areas of language, literature, history and civilization, selected to fill the needs of the students at every level. Representative periodicals of Spain and Spanish America are received, in order to inform the students of the most recent trends in literature and education in the Spanish speaking world.

Accommodations One of the most attractive features of the school is the friendliness which exists between the faculty and students, in no small measure due to the fact that the faculty and staff, as well as all students, reside in the dormitories. Gifford and Hepburn Halls provide attractive and comfortable accommodations for the increasing enrollment of the Spanish School.

The offices of the Director and Dean are in Hillcrest Laboratory.

All members of the school take their meals together in the Proctor Dining Hall. A system of rotation provides an opportunity for all to become better acquainted.

Activities Activities outside the classroom are an important feature of life in the Spanish School. Whether it is a picnic, a game of croquet, a tennis or golf match, a dance or a hand of cards, the object is to live it and play it in Spanish and to broaden one’s acquaintanceship with every phase of Spanish life and customs.

The singing of Spanish folk songs, the presentation of good Spanish theatre, the attendance of Spanish moving pictures, all are designed to add to the student’s enjoyment and knowledge.

Scholarships A few scholarships of one hundred dollars each will be available this summer. Only students who would be unable to attend without such financial assistance are eligible. These awards will be made on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application should be made to the Dean before March 15. The awards will be announced about April first.
The Juan A. Centeno Memorial Scholarship was established in the summer of 1949 by the students and faculty of the Middlebury Spanish Summer School, in memory of the beloved teacher who was Director of the School for fifteen years. The fund is still growing, and further contributions will be gladly received. The income from this permanent fund provides a scholarship for a specially deserving student in the Spanish School.

Self-Help A limited number of students may earn their board and $40 credit toward the room charge by acting as waiters and waitresses in the Spanish dining-halls. A speaking knowledge of Spanish is essential for one of these positions. Those interested should apply to the Dean before April first; awards will be announced by April 15.

Graduate School in Spain Middlebury College also conducts a Graduate School of Spanish in Spain. A selected group of graduate students spend the academic year in Madrid, studying under the supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. The Middlebury Master of Arts degree is awarded to those who successfully complete an approved program. See the inside back cover of this bulletin.

Correspondence Communications regarding admission, courses, credits and other academic information should be addressed to Miss Laurie Perry, Exec. Sec’y of the Spanish Summer School, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont. Correspondence concerning fees and rooms should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College.
The Graduate Schools

of French in France
German in Germany
Italian in Italy
Spanish in Spain

Middlebury College conducts a Graduate School of French in France, a Graduate School of German in Germany, a Graduate School of Italian in Italy, and a Graduate School of Spanish in Spain. Eighty-five American students are now enrolled in the University of Paris under this plan; thirty-one students at the University of Mainz; twenty-five at the University of Florence; and sixty-six in Madrid.

The students spend the academic year on a coordinated program of advanced instruction in linguistics, phonetics, literature, history, the arts and social institutions. These courses are followed in the Faculties or other divisions and institutes, or in specially arranged graduate study, in Paris, Mainz, Florence, and Madrid. The students work under the close guidance and supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. At the close of the year, final examinations are administered under his direction, and the successful candidates receive the Middlebury Master of Arts degree, in addition to any foreign certificates or diplomas which they may earn.

A preliminary summer of preparation at the Middlebury Summer School is normally required, and only those who prove themselves qualified are allowed to enroll. Members of the group are treated as mature graduate students. They make their own arrangements for transportation, board and room, with the advice and guidance of the Middlebury Director. The Director facilitates worthwhile social contacts, and assists their plans for travel, visits to museums, and attendance at theaters and concerts. Each member is officially enrolled as a graduate student at Middlebury College, and pays his tuition fee to the college; this covers all enrollment, examination, and other academic fees abroad. Veterans may use their G. I. credits under this plan.
